ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

Ragging is strictly prohibited at MIT University of Meghalaya. Students are forbidden from participating in any form of ragging, both on and off-campus. Ragging, which includes physical or mental abuse, manhandling, abusive language, gestures, or coercing others into harmful acts, is recognized as a serious social, cultural, and psychological issue.

Students are encouraged to uphold the esteemed traditions of MIT Group of Institutions and MIT University of Meghalaya by refraining from any actions that could be considered ragging. Those involved in such activities will face legal consequences as mandated by the Supreme Court of India.

In compliance with Supreme Court directives and UGC regulations, the university has established an Anti-Ragging Committee and an Anti-Ragging Squad to ensure proper enforcement.

The composition of the Anti-Ragging Committee in MIT University of Meghalaya are:

Name	Designation
Dr. Malhar Pangrikar Vice Chancellor	Chairman
Dr. Debmalya Bhattacharya Pro Vice-Chancellor	Co-Chairman
Asst. Prof. Lapyngkhamtibiang Mawiong	Member

Asst. Prof. Dibyak Das Sarkar	Member
Mr. Issac Warjri	Student Representative BBA 2 nd Semester
	Parent Representative
	Media Personnel

PROCESS & FUNCTIONING

Anyone facing any grievance can reach out to any committee member in the University.

For ragging complaints, anyone can contact the University on the mobile number +91-92711-10114. Information received through this number will be promptly forwarded to the relevant authorities.

Complaint boxes are available at the Students Development Section. Any complaints about ragging will be immediately directed to the Anti-Ragging Committee.

Any complaint should include sufficient details of the incident and be submitted to the committee. Upon receiving a complaint, the Committee will promptly initiate action.

Based on the Committee's recommendations, the Vice Chancellor will determine the appropriate course of action or may initiate an inquiry depending on the severity of the situation.

Students can also send their complaints to pvc@mitu.edu.in or contact us on the provided phone number.

RAGGING IS A CRIMINAL OFFENCE AND THE
